PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S ROUNDTABLE HOSTS AN EVENT ON TAKING THE LEAD IN THE WORKPLACE AND COMMUNITY

PHILADELPHIA (May 4, 2004) — Join Professional Women's Roundtable (PWR) on Monday, May 17, 2004 from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. at the Pyramid Club, 1735 Market Street, 52nd Floor, as we learn about leadership in the workplace and community with a panel of experts in this area. The event is $10 for members and $20 for non-members. Please RSVP to Aileen at akain@peleast.org.

The panel will be moderated by Anne Gordon, managing editor, Philadelphia Inquirer; and comprised of Irene Hannan, senior vice president, Citizens Bank; Sharmaine Matlock Turner, executive director, GPUAC; Katherine Hatton, general counsel, Philadelphia Newspapers, Inc.; and Kathleen O'Brien, partner, Montgomery McCracken Walker & Rhoads.

What does it mean to lead? Do you have what it takes to be a leader within your own company and the larger community? These are just a sampling of questions that will be answered by women who can speak from experience regarding leadership - each is a senior executive in a different business sector; banking, nonprofit, media and law. We'll ask them about their secrets to success, but also for advice about avoiding common pitfalls along the way. Each of the panelists is committed to the community and is actively involved as a board member of several organizations. Find out what it takes to be a valued board member and how to manage your time in order to be able to contribute to a board.

Professional Women's Roundtable is an informal network of professional women for whom networking and/or business development is a significant component of their professional responsibilities and career objectives. PWR participants come together on a regular basis to acquire and hone business development and other professional development skills, expand and strengthen their professional network, including their referral base, and meet and cultivate new business prospects and resources. The ideal PWR participant has five to 15 years experience in her chosen profession or career and is focused on enhancing her networking and business development skills and efforts, as well as the other professional skills necessary to advance in today's marketplace.
