Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served. Space is limited - please RSVP to Jane Barr Pino at jane@barrpino.com or (215) 628-9844.

This event will include a panel discussion by successful women entrepreneurial leaders within the Philadelphia community. Harriett Lessy, president of Buzz Communications will present the topic "You Can Do It!, The Decision to STOP Working For Someone Else and Work For Yourself;" Krista Bard, president of Bard Strategies will focus on "Staying Power, How to Change With the Times;" and Roslyn Pilla, president of Pilla Creative Group will discuss "It's Better The Second Time Around, Learning From Your Mistakes." The panel will be moderated by Phyllis Sisenwine, MCC, Master Certified Coach and Motivational Speaker In addition to the presentation, this event will include an innovative showcase of eight PWR members displaying their own businesses in a trade show setting.

Professional Women's Roundtable is an informal network of professional women for whom networking and/or business development is a significant component of their professional responsibilities and career objectives. PWR participants come together on a regular basis to acquire and hone business development and other professional development skills, expand and strengthen their professional network, including their referral base, and meet and cultivate new business prospects and resources. The ideal PWR participant has five to fifteen years experience in her chosen profession or career and is focused on enhancing her networking and business development skills and efforts, as well as the other professional skills necessary to advance in today's marketplace.
