The event will be held at Liberty Court at Society Hill, 212 Lombard Street, Philadelphia from 5:30-7:30 pm. Space is limited - please RSVP to Jane Barr Pino at jane@barrpino.com or (215) 628-9844. Validated parking available directly across Lombard Street next to Cosi.

Each year, PWR chooses a local organization focused on helping underprivileged women and children in our area. This year they have chosen the Community Women's Education Project (CWEP), a Philadelphia-based organization that provides low-income women with quality adult education classes and essential support services.

Join PWR for an evening of cocktails and networking in an effort to raise money for CWEP. The evening will also feature an extensive raffle of fabulous items to directly benefit CWEP. For more information about CWEP, please log on to www.cwep.org

PWR is an informal network of professional women for whom networking and/or business development is a significant component of their professional responsibilities and career objectives. PWR participants come together on a regular basis to acquire and hone business development and other professional development skills, expand and strengthen their professional network, including their referral base, and meet and cultivate new business prospects and resources. The ideal PWR participant has five to fifteen years experience in her chosen profession or career and is focused on enhancing her networking and business development skills and efforts, as well as the other professional skills necessary to advance in today's marketplace.
