

MEDIA ALERT

- WHO: Professional Women's Roundtable (PWR)
- WHAT: Lynn Yeakel presents "Footprints to Follow"
- WHERE: Drexel University College of Medicine, New College Building
19th Floor – 245 North 15th Street
- WHEN: Wednesday, May 14, 2003
5:30 to 7:30 p.m.
Presentation to begin at 6 p.m.
- DETAILS: Guest Speaker, Lynn Yeakel, Director of Drexel University College of Medicine's Institute for Women's Health and Leadership as well as founder and former chief executive of the first and largest women's funding federation in the nation, Womens Way, and long-time civic and government leader will present "Footprints to Follow" which refers to her belief in taking risks and embracing new opportunities in our individual lives.

Ms. Yeakel, a former candidate for the U.S. Senate and governor of Pennsylvania, served as the Mid-Atlantic Regional Director for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services during the 1990s. Her leadership initiatives included the Freedom from Fear Campaign to end family violence and "Envisioning a Healthier Philadelphia," a coalition of more than 60 public and private organizations launched to improve access to health care in the region.

For more information, contact Cheri Cutler at 215/888-5147.